I have filled him with the Spirit of God in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all craftsmanship, to make artistic designs for work in gold, in silver, and in bronze, and in the cutting of stones for settings, and in the carving of wood, that he may work in all craftsmanship. Exodus 31:3,4,5

art submission request

Do you draw, paint, sketch, sculpt, design, photograph, carve, create, print? The Creative Arts Team is looking for you. We are seeking submissions for an Art Show to be held in the Kirk Center gym on Friday evening, March 19. This year's theme will be "New Life," correlating with FPC's 2010 Lenten preaching theme, "The Seven Deadly Sins," where we will explore God's work of sanctification—or new life—in the believer. All artists, amateur through professional, are welcome to make a submission and offer their unique interpretation of the new life theme.

Art submitted for showing must be portable. Artists must provide their own easels or fixture for display. Artists are also invited to provide artist cards for the art show, if desired.

Submission form should include artist's name and contact information, a brief description of and number of pieces being submitted, artist's bio or artist's statement, and any other pertinent details. Submission forms are due by Sunday, February 28. We will be collecting forms in the Rotunda that day, or you can email your form to Sunny Nelson at sunny.nelson@gmail.com. Art is due by March 7, 2010. The Creative Arts Team will contact you to arrange for delivery of your art. All artwork is subject for review by the Creative Arts Team. Space is limited. For more information or if you are planning on being a part of the art show, please contact Sunny Nelson at 484.695.9817 or by email.
